

Chad Rigney, originally from Dallas, TX, holds an undergraduate degree from The Criswell College and a seminary degree from Dallas Theological Seminary. With 15 years of experience in youth and family ministry in the DFW area, he later served six years as a missionary with the International Mission Board in London, England, planting The Village Church in Greenwich, SE London. In 2020, he became an Active Duty Army chaplain, serving with the 82nd Airborne Division, Special Operations. He served on the clergy Team at Holy Trinity Anglican, Ft. Bragg. Ordained to the Diaconate in 2021 and the Priesthood in 2022, Chad currently serves at Hunter Army Airfield in Savannah, GA. He is married to Lynsi and has three children: Aden (19), Addyson (16), and Evelyn (9).